No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 10, 1864.

THE LATE ELECTION.—So far as heard from the election last Tuesday passed off peaceably and in good order throughout the State.

It will be impossible to furnish accurate returns of the election in the frontier counties for a week to come, but the State is safe for the Union cause by somewhere about 1,500 majority. While the Union vote will be larger than that of last spring, the increase of the Democratic vote in the counties exposed to inroads of illegal voters will be very large, and will tend to reduce the Union majorities.

In this city we claim that at least 100 votes were cast for McClellan by men who were not [illegible] this State according to our Constitution. Several hundred were challenged, but most swore their votes in.

At the lower precinct votes were admitted with much less precaution than was required at the South Portland precinct. The small majority in North Portland was accomplished by the votes of gamblers, roughs, emigrants and secesh, all the way from Idaho and Washington Territories, but this will not change the result. The State declares for Lincoln and Johnson.

NEWS FROM OWYHEE.—From Mr. G. C. Robbins, just returned from Owyhee, we learn that the mills are now steadily working, with a yield that is really astonishing and fully equal to the expectations of all concerned. Crude bullion is being turned out by the ton, and we shall soon receive here the most substantial proof of the value of that region in the shape of the piles of silver bricks we have so often read of as being produced at Washoe. The Morning Star mill had been working rock from the Morning Star ledge, near which it stands, and the results were surprising; it being necessary to stop the pans frequently, as with eleven hundred pounds of quicksilver at work, the quicksilver soon became too thick to work to advantage, from the great accumulation of the real silver in the pan. Three tons of "Whisky" rock yielded $1,000, being merely average rock. Mincar & Co.'s mill was crushing Allison rock with good success, but would soon try the quartz from Home Ticket; when there is no doubt the well established fame of that ledge will be built up on a solid foundation of "bricks."

The Ainsworth Mill Company were crushing good quartz at their mill, saving the gold, and are well paid for so doing, but not yet having the proper machinery to save the silver. They will soon be prepared in that respect, and then will have no difficulty in showing more sizeable bricks though not so rich per ounce as at present.

The success of Owyhee is assured. There is probably no known silver bearing district that has opened up more satisfactorily than this and very few do so well.

The quartz as a general thing crushes easily and the gold and silver is easily saved, so that many of the difficulties that retard the progress of other mining districts are unknown here.

While many of the ledges are of good size, there is no exception to the rule, that where a clearly defined vein is found on the surface, it invariably improves in width and richness as it is sunk upon.

This is only the commencement of a rich and prosperous career of the mining region that lies on the head waters of the Columbia river.

THE GROWTH OF OUR STATE.—There were over 15,000 voters in our State at the Presidential election in 1860, the actual vote being 14,410, only a trifle short of that. During the last four years the increase of population in Oregon has been greater than for the same period previous, and there are at the present time at least 20,000 voters in this State, and the actual vote cast will approximate near to that figure.

The increase of the two Portland precincts over the June election is 514, and while we believe a large fraudulent vote was cast, and cast for McClellan, and think that if the election had taken place in the summer before the gamblers of the upper country had arrived, as well as the numerous allies of Jeff. Davis that have crossed the plains this year, the result would have footed up much better for us; we still believe that Portland as well as all Oregon is fast growing in population and that the increase of vote is an indication of the material growth and prosperity of our State.

THE LOST FOUND.—The child that strayed away from its parents on Monday, Oct. 31st, has been found. He is the son of Mr. Thompson who resides about nine miles southwest of Oregon City, near the Molalla river. The little wanderer is not quite three years of age, yet he had traveled about a mile from home and was not found until the afternoon of Thursday, thus being compelled to endure hunger and the inclemency of the weather three whole nights and days. To say the least, this is a remarkable case of endurance in a child. When last heard from, he was doing as well as could be expected.

CHARACTERISTIC.—When General Sheridan was about to leave San Francisco to go East, he took a friend's hand and said to him, "Good bye. I am going to the States to enter active service." (He was then a Lieutenant.) "and shall try to be a Captain." This is the language of a hero—of a man who is looking onward and upward. He has become a Captain, and promises to be one of the greatest in the war.

GREAT BRIDGE BEING CONSTRUCTED ON THE OHIO.—Mr. Roebling is now superintending the construction of another suspension bridge across the Ohio river, between Cincinnati and Covington, Kentucky. The Ohio bridge will cost, it is estimated, some $1,500,000, and in length will exceed the Niagara bridge some 400 feet. It will be suspended 00 feet above high water, enabling the largest river steamers to pass under it without difficulty.

COLLECTION OF TAXES.—We publish to-day the law passed at the late session of the Legislative Assembly of this State, by which, after the 20th of this month, sheriffs become collectors of taxes throughout the State. It is an important law, and is expected to work an improvement in State and county finances.

Dr. L. S. Thompson has been appointed Resident Collector of Internal Revenue for Jackson county.

Majority	530	Maj. [illegible]

Lincoln's majority 456.

Yamhill.

Gen. Palmer reports that Yamhill County gives 130 majority for Lincoln.

Washington.

As far as heard from gives Lincoln 238 majority, with Cedar Creek and South Tualatin to hear from, which will increase the majority to 250 for the Union cause.

Clackamas.

By a telegram from Mr. Chapman, we learn that this county gives Lincoln 222 majority.

Wasco.

We gather the following from the Mountaineer extra: Dalles Precinct gives McClellan 22 majority; Hood River, 13; Deschutes gives Lincoln 35 majority; Tygh Vally 11.

Benton.

Is claimed for McClellan by 5 majority.

Linn.

Albany gives Lincoln 48 maj., and Lebanon gives Lincoln 48 maj., but the county is claimed for McClellan by some 90 majority.

Douglas.

Gives Lincoln 100 majority.

We are indebted to Mr. Corbett for the following:

SALEM, Nov. 9th, 9:30 P. M.

H. W. CORBETT: Marion county gives six hundred and six (606) Lincoln, Douglas one hundred (100) Lincoln, Polk about same as last year (132 Union last spring) Linn ninety (90) McClellan, Benton six (6) McClellan, Lane four (4) McClellan, Jackson eighty-eight (88) McClellan.

(Signed) HUNTINGTON.

THE FOOTING UP AT 10 P. M.—The counties giving majorities for Lincoln foot up some 2,100 in favor of the Union cause, less the small Democratic majorities in Jackson, Josephine, Lane, Linn and Benton, with the country east of the mountains to hear from. We may calculate on over 1,500 and perhaps 1,800 majority.

Current Events at Walla Walla.

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 4, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

This is a small city, but an eventful one for its size. We have moral events and immoral events, curious social events, numerous criminal events and a mixture of political events; and the latter has had much to do with the former. In good morals I fear we come short of the standard to which most places with similar advantages have attained. As to immorality and crime, we are fully up to the standard, I am sorry to say. Socially, we have much good society and many excellent families and people who love good order and favor education and moral reform. Politically, we are considerably mixed, and some bad ingredients withal. We have some firm, stable, unflinching Union men, who believe that the maintainance of the whole Union and the policy of the present Administration and the re-election of Lincoln and the prosecution of the war for the suppression of the most high-handed and wicked rebellion that the world ever knew, is of vital importance to the future peace and prosperity and the glory of the Republic which our forefathers were providentially raised up to establish. We have men who would as soon think of repudiating their family and kindred, as to enlist in a cause designed to sunder or divide a consolidated Union like ours; a moral and political power which is destined ultimately to sway the globe, and whose principles will be the only safeguard of the world; and Mr. Editor, your correspondent is one of that kind of men. But we have men (not a few) who, from some inexplicable motives, perhaps for supremely selfish ends, either politically or socially regardless of consequences, are willing, yea, even labor to promote a cause which strikes at the fundamental principles of Americanism and our social compact, and seeks to overthrow them.

These men encourage and support secession; they would secede from wholesome laws and human rights, and for the sake of mere political party considerations, would sell their birthright; and yet they make many demonstrations to bring about peace and save the country, they say, from ruin. They deprecate the war because their Southern brethren, who are fighting their battles for the same end, are in danger of losing their cause. The working of the Administration, the conduct of the war, and the principles of universal freedom troubles their equilibrium, and interferes with their ideas of constitutional consistency. It reminds me, Mr. Editor, of the process of testing some of the gold dust that comes through our commercial channels; when its purity is suspected, and the unfailing acid is applied, it fizzles, and burns blue and red, and sends off its corrupting effluvia in smoke. Now, Mr. Editor, this struggle is a purifying process; and Uncle Abe and his emancipation edict, with Grant, Butler, Sheridan, Farragut, and numerous other fighting generals and soldiers, are the testing power, and secesh fizzles and writhes, and smokes, and throws off their bad odor, when this test is applied. But Union principles will continue to purify until our Heritage is redeemed, and we stand forth a beacon light of Freedom for future generations.

TORCH-LIGHT.

JEFF. DAVIS ON RE-UNION.—Jeff. Davis in a speech before the Legislature of Mississippi, on the 26th of December, 1862, expressed himself in the following manner in reference to a re-union with the North:

"Our enemies are a traditionless and homeless race. From the time of Cromwell to the present they have been the disturbers of the peace of the world. Gathered together by Cromwell from the fens and bogs of the north of Ireland, and of England, they commenced by disturbing the peace of their own country; they disturbed Holland, to which they had fled, and disturbed England on their return. After what has happened the last two years, my only wonder is that we consented to live so long a time in association with such miscreants. Were it ever proposed to enter again into a union with such a people, I would no more consent to do it than to trust myself in a den of thieves."

The most serious opposition to a Canadian Confederacy comes from Canada East, where the French element is dominant, and where the dream of a new Franco-American nationality is indulged in by sundry of the more ardent spirits of the Province. In this part of Canada, the French are solicitous to retain their power, and they will not assent to any Confederation in which extreme State Rights are not conceded to them.

FRENCH ATTACK ON MAZATLAN.—The Echo du Pacifique contains a letter from Acapulco under date of the 16th inst., the writer of which says that the French war ships Victoire, d'Assas and Diamant would leave that port on the 24th inst., with two companies of Turcos, to attack Mazatlan. A land force including two companies of Zouaves and 70 Turcos, will co-operate. No resistance is expected in the city, which has no fortifications to protect it against bombardment.

The Eastern News in to-day's paper should have been published in the OREGONIAN two days since, having been on the road from California here ten days, and detained by the press of election news.

Hons. B. F. Harding and J. R. McBride, of Oregon, left Boise City for Washington, per stage, last Thursday.

THE CAMANCHE.—The first Monitor for the Pacific coast, the Camanche, is to be launched at San Francisco on the 13th of this month.

AN Indian of the Sioux tribe, killed in a late engagement out West, was discovered after death to be a red headed white man.

Indian Outbreak in Washington Territory.

OLYMPIA, Nov. 9.—Information has been received from the Snohomish river to the effect that a Mr. Riley got into an affray with an Indian, in which firearms were used. They were separated, however, in time to prevent bloodshed. The next day the Indian started up the river in a canoe in company with an old Indian and two squaws. Riley raised a company of six or eight men and followed them, concealed themselves by the river and fired upon the Indians, killing the old Indian and wounding both squaws. The other [illegible] and made his escape.

Governor Pickering and Mr. Waterman, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, received a telegram last evening from Seattle, stating that three white persons, Mr. and Mrs. Casto and Mr. Halstead, were murdered by the Snohomish Indians at Squak Lake near Seattle. It is not known whether this indicates a general outbreak or not, but every exertion will be made to bring the violators of the law, both Indians and whites, to punishment.

NEWS FROM [illegible] COUNTRY.—We clip the subjoined items from the [illegible] of Nov. 2d:

It will start there [illegible] extent [illegible] encouragement to the enterprise. Through long acquaintance with these gentlemen, we know them to be thoroughly competent.

Large numbers of miners are now arriving from Warrens, Florence, Oro Fino, Elk City and other camps above, to remain during the winter. Very few go below, as they can make wages for the winter by remaining [illegible].

Major Thomas, writing to his brother Newton Thomas, [illegible] under date of October 5th from Wild Horse creek, in speaking of the mines and prospects of the country, says: "A piece of gold was found about one and a half miles from town weighing nine pounds, which would be $1,944 in gold." Gentlemen of this place, knowing Mr. Thomas, vouch for the correctness of the statement. Kootenai gold is current at $18 per ounce in our market. This is a little the largest piece taken out north of California.

Al. Ripson arrived on Monday evening direct from Florence and Warrens. The miners are still at work in Warrens. Mr. Ripson estimates that nearly one thousand will winter in Warrens. At Florence mining operations were nearly suspended. Some three inches of snow had fallen at Warrens, and six inches at Florence.

On Monday morning the first snow was perceptible from Lewiston, the peaks on the Craig Mountains showing their white mantle.

BALSAM

OF THE

THROAT.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8, 1861. Messrs. J. L. Scovill & Co.—Gentlemen: I feel it a duty I owe to others to let them know the value of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam for curing of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup, and came very near dying. I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave relief in a very short time. We have used in cases of bad coughs, with the happiest effect. Benjamin Filkin, Eighth street, between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. REDINGTON & CO., General Agents for the Pacific Coast, 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

Beware of all other preparations of the same name. Each bottle of the genuine bears the signature of "J. R. Baker & Co.," Cincinnati. Take none other. Price One Dollar per bottle.

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO., Agents, 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood, leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with confidence that there is no better remedy than SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

THE EXPENSE.—Tuesday evening the M[illegible] Club undertook to crown the [illegible] beverage, and not [illegible] their satisfaction they [illegible] culvereen and waited [illegible] very patiently until [illegible] the glorious news [illegible] had given from [illegible] Oregon [illegible] This intelligence was [illegible] enthusiasm and [illegible] it were nearly equal and [illegible] yells that invariably precede [illegible] The culvereen was [illegible] as intended as the [illegible] of the Orego[illegible] being as inflammable as their [illegible] response [illegible] This unhappy [illegible] came that California was [illegible] When the explosion [illegible] good effect that [illegible] of some $200 [illegible] to pay for [illegible] in the vicinity. The next [illegible] celebrate a [illegible] and ere whiskey and [illegible] judgment.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Recorder McC[illegible] several cases of drunk and disorderly [illegible] were disposed of as [illegible] Herring was fined $10 and costs which was [illegible] he was discharged. [illegible] Prior fined $10 and costs [illegible] Porter was committed [illegible] jail two days [illegible] Wilson was discharged [illegible] Kruger committed [illegible] three days [illegible] Gibson charged with violent and [illegible] conduct was discharged [illegible] of these cases occurred [illegible] before and we [illegible] ourselves that while our city [illegible] and while many were somewhat intoxicated [illegible] serious difficulty or disturbance [illegible] this is due to the efficient management [illegible]

THE UNION FLAG AGAIN.—Mr Edward Gibson, [illegible] under City Ordinance No 10, with violent [illegible] disorderly conduct in tearing down the American [illegible] that was suspended from the McClellan [illegible] was examined before the Recorder McC[illegible] on his charge and honorably discharged. [illegible] evidence showed that the perpetrator of this [illegible] act went up Stark street while Mr Gibson [illegible] another way. [illegible] watchman who arrested him doubtless acted [illegible] faith and thought he had the proper party, [illegible] but the testimony before the court fully [illegible] Mr Gibson and we take pleasure since [illegible] his arrest, to also publish his vindication before the court. [illegible] Gibson appeared to feel as deeply [illegible] charge against him and while he declared that [illegible] intended to vote for neither of the political [illegible] asserted that his love for the American [illegible] superior to all political prejudices that his [illegible] father had served as one of Washington's [illegible] guard in the revolution, and left to his descendants as a legacy a true devotion to the flag [illegible] which he fought so long to establish. [illegible] believe no doubt remains as to the innocence of Mr Gibson in any candid mind. [illegible] considerable has been said about the small [illegible] of Gibson by the Recorder we will [illegible] $10 was the highest bail that could be required for violation of City Ordinance No 10 [illegible] no fault to be found with that.

[illegible] AT LA GRANDE.—Mr E S McComas [illegible] Grande was in town a few days since for [illegible] purpose of securing a press and materials for [illegible] commencement of a weekly paper at that place. [illegible] Ronde valley is becoming one of the [illegible] spots in Oregon, and fast being settled [illegible] the large amount of rich farming land [illegible] claimed in 160 acre tracts, and improvements pushed ahead rapidly. [illegible] is a town of some considerable importance [illegible] Union ten miles distant at the east side [illegible] valley, is rapidly growing and will soon [illegible] with it for the permanent location of the [illegible] There are worse places in Oregon than La Grande [illegible] a newspaper.

[illegible] SOMEBODY PROTEST.—Despite all the [illegible] imprecations of our friends in Clatsop [illegible] counties (we mean, however only [illegible] at Astoria and two or three at the [illegible] the Willamette seems determined to [illegible] navigable for all sorts of craft and [illegible] or sand bars can prevent the ocean [illegible] from coming to our wharves at the most [illegible] rather glad to see the river raising [illegible] earlier the Willamette above the falls be[illegible] navigable, the sooner the full granaries [illegible] of the upper counties can reach market. [illegible] glad to see it rise here since we feel [illegible] that the time will never come again when [illegible] below Portland will not be kept open for [illegible] of all vessels necessary for our commerce, [illegible] to note it be[illegible]

[illegible] NOT.—The last day or two we have [illegible] a foretaste of coming events, in the [illegible] down pouring rain. [illegible] streets are terribly muddy, and there are [illegible] places, where an inventive mind might suggest improvements. [illegible] there you have drink and places where [illegible] afford more variety than is convenient [illegible] mud than is desirable but the city [illegible] that all right, when it becomes [illegible] fathers to exercise the power conferred [illegible] in that instrument. [illegible] by country roads is pretty much [illegible] the season, and we must bid adieu to the [illegible] wagons until another summer.

QUIET AGAIN.—The excitement incident to the [illegible] being over, our city has once more [illegible] its usual quietness. Campaign orators [illegible] departed and bands of music are heard no [illegible] groups of partisans assemble at well [illegible] resorts, discussing the probable majorities [illegible] respective candidates and consoling [illegible] each other as the case may be. At [illegible] of these assemblages yesterday, an enthusiastic [illegible] of McClellan discovered that some [illegible] enemy had plastered a [illegible] ticket on [illegible] This diabolical and unprovoked [illegible] his political proclivities deeply afflicted [illegible] aforesaid retainer, and he earnestly invited [illegible] perpetrator thereof to step forward and [illegible] give him something. As no [illegible] seemed to receive "something," the [illegible] a strong disposition to transfer "something" [illegible] small boy who was indulging in a [illegible] The small boy however did not appreciate the aforesaid transfer and struck [illegible] "bee line" for the paternal [illegible] disappointed adherent, after passing divers [illegible] resolutions to do something [illegible] retired, and has not since been heard of.

THEATRICAL.—Despite the stormy weather last [illegible] there was an attractive display of bonnets [illegible] circle to see Armand or the [illegible] reproduced at the Willamette Theatre. [illegible] never fails to leave a good impression on [illegible] audience, and Mr Waldron as Armand was [illegible] successful. The remaining parts were well [illegible] and the play as a whole was [illegible] Mrs. Robinson was out in the afterpiece and [illegible] as usual, with her part of "Betsy B[illegible] "As well as usual" [illegible] of this favorite [illegible] performance [illegible] was well supported by Mr. D[illegible] by adds no little to the interest [illegible] when he has a principal part [illegible] are many strangers in the city [illegible] means to much [illegible] would in the witnessing [illegible] standard play [illegible]

CONTEMPT OF COURT.—Since writing the [illegible] Mr Gibson's discharge we have learned that [illegible] he was intoxicated [illegible] witness for which [illegible] contempt of court. While he may [illegible] been guiltless of the charge against him [illegible] no excuse to offer for his conduct in this particular.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!

Louis McMurray & Co., B[illegible]

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of [illegible] Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over that in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.
